

Flow Chart of Quality Clearance

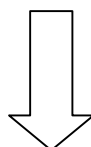

Sample collection from Central Warehouse/District ware House for National Accreditation Board for Testing and Calibration Laboratories (NABL) test.

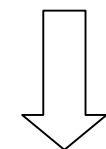

Sample is Coded

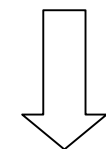

Sample Packing with generated Code after removal of all details given by supplier on the drug packed.

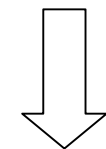

Sample sending to (NABL) Empanelled Lab with Code for test and Analysis.

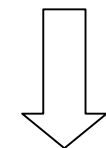

Receiving the NABL Test report.

Decoding with Batch no and Report sent to Technical Advisor for Further Comment /Action.

Quality Clearance is issued on the satisfactory comment given by Technical Advisor.

If the Report is not satisfactory it is reported to the Supplier and the Drug is held and further action is taken as per Tender condition and Purchase Order.